

The Aggregation of the Blessed Sacrament

One of the three international branches of religious institutes founded by Saint Peter Julian Eymard, Apostle of the Eucharist. We share our founder's charism with the other two branches: the men's Congregation of the Blessed Sacrament and the women's Servants of the Blessed Sacrament.

Our ideal - The Eucharist as the Center of our Lives.

Called to live an authentically Eucharistic Christian spirituality, we are animated by the spirit of love that led Christ to give his life for the world and to perpetuate this gift in the Eucharist. Answering our vocational call received in baptism, and guided by our Project of Life, we therefore put ourselves at the service of the Kingdom in realizing the Apostle's words: "It is no longer I who live, but Christ who lives in me" (Gal 2,20).

Our Eymardian Charism and Formation

Through initial and ongoing programs of formation, we strengthen our understanding of what it means to live a Eucharist-centered life following in the footsteps of Saint Peter Julian Eymard. We meet as a community to study, pray, and share our lives with others in the Eymardian family at the local, national, and international levels.

Our Sharing in the Mission of the Church

From Christ, who in the Eucharist offers himself totally to us, we receive the inspiration and the strength to proclaim the Gospel, giving witness to it by our lives. In our parishes, we assume lay ministries in liturgy, in the transmission of faith, and in the pastoral structures of the church. We take our apostolic inspiration from the social doctrine of the Church to transform society in building a world of justice and peace, collaborating with men and women of good will to build up God's kingdom.

"Belong entirely to God through love, entirely to your neighbor through a gracious charity, entirely to the divine Eucharist by the offering and sacrifice of your whole self."

- Saint Peter Julian Eymard to Stephanie Gourde, October 23, 1859
